Information for candidates.

Nominations are now open for the 2006 Victorian State Election.

Candidates who are not endorsed by a registered political party must nominate with the appropriate election manager. The election manager will supply a Candidate’s Kit, which includes a nomination form. Nominations close at 12 noon, Friday 10 November. Late nominations cannot be accepted. The VEC will conduct an information session for intending non-party candidates at 2.05pm on Sunday 5 November at the Victorian Electoral Commission, Ground Floor, 505 Little Collins Street, Melbourne.

Registered political parties must nominate candidates at the VEC, Level 8, 505 Little Collins Street, Melbourne. Nominations for party candidates close at 12 noon, Thursday 9 November. Late nominations cannot be accepted.

Additional information for Upper House candidates.

If a person or organisation intends to distribute how-to-vote cards on election day, the VEC must be notified in writing. How-to-vote cards are the only form of printed electoral material that may be distributed within 400 metres of a voting centre on election day (penalties apply).

The period for submitting how-to-vote cards for registration is Monday 13 November to 12 noon, Friday 17 November. If a person or organisation intends to distribute how-to-vote cards on election day, Saturday 25 November, the cards must be registered by the VEC. Registered how-to-vote cards are the only form of printed electoral material that may be distributed within 400 metres of a voting centre on election day (penalties apply).

For more information: call the election manager in the electorate where you intend to nominate or distribute how-to-vote cards.

How to vote correctly this Saturday.

For your vote to shape Victoria at this State election, Saturday 25 November 2006, you must fill out your ballot papers correctly.

On election day you'll be given two ballot papers, a small ballot paper for the Lower House (Legislative Assembly) and a large ballot paper for the Upper House (Legislative Council).

For the Upper House you can vote in two ways.

Either

Vote for your preferred party or group of candidates by placing the number 1 in just one of the squares above the line.

Or

Vote for individual candidates below the line by numbering a minimum of 5 squares in order of your preferences 1 to 5. You may continue numbering more than 5 if you wish.

Put the number 1 in the box next to the name of the candidate you most want to see elected, then number ALL the other boxes in order of your preference.

Remember, number all the boxes on the small ballot paper.

Voting centres open 8.00am to 6.00pm on Saturday 25 November.
